Traditional upper conversion, occupying arguably the finest position in the district, close to Lenzie train station and all local amenities. The home sits proudly within large private gardens. Providing the perfect blend of period features with a modern and tasteful twist early viewing will be essential. The property allows flexible accommodation, allowing any buyer the opportunity to re configure to suit personal requirements. The home has sumptuous rooms of enviable proportions each providing a high degree of natural light.

The apartment benefits from a private entrance located at the rear of the building. The vestibule has stairs leading to the internal front door. Accommodation is formed over one level and comprises welcoming reception hallway which allows access to all apartments. The exceptionally spacious lounge is positioned to the rear of the house, boasting two windows and a focal fireplace and surround. The kitchen has been cleverly designed to house ample base and wall mounted units, a number of appliances and contrasting work surface space. There is also a useful larder cupboard accessed from the kitchen. The formal dining room/bedroom 3 boasts a large window over looking the front driveway and garden. There are a further two double size bedrooms in the property, the large master bedroom to the front has traditional window shutters. The stylish shower room has built in vanity storage, and decorative curved window, completes the accommodation.

Gas fired central heating system (boiler approx 6 years old). Externally, there is a large garage and stone outbuilding, both with power. The current owner has substantially up-graded the outhouse to provide a useful office space, separate to the main residence. (Fully insulated, lined, with electric heating and a double glazed window unit)

The property is set within well tended mature gardens which provide a colourful haven to relax and/or entertain in.

Heath Avenue is one of the most desirable addresses in Lenzie. The property occupies the upper portion of a handsome traditional villa with substantial grounds, a portion of which is attributed solely to this property.

Lenzie is a vibrant town and one of the most desirable commuter suburbs on the north side of Glasgow, with the mainline railway station offering services to both Glasgow and Edinburgh. The town is surrounded by picturesque farmland offering many walks and outdoor expeditions, however Glasgow city centre and the surrounding towns can be access easily via the nearby motorway networks.

The village itself offers a range of shops, parish churches and a number of sporting venues which include Lenzie Rugby Club, Lenzie Golf Club, Lenzie Tennis Club and Lenzie Bowling Club. The general locality provides a further selection of sports facilities including Kirkintilloch Liesure Centre. The Forth and Clyde Canal is nearby providing beautiful walking and cycling routes.

There are many primary schools in the area and Lenzie Academy, is acknowledged for its distinguished academic record attracting many young families to the area.
