This is a unique opportunity to acquire an attractive red sandstone detached villa, located within the heart of Stepps. The entire dwelling requires extensive modernisation, allowing any buyer the opportunity to reconfigure/design to suit individual requirements. The plot affords the potential to extend/develop subject to planning constraints.

Currently accommodation comprises entrance vestibule, reception hallway, two spacious reception rooms to the front, a double bedroom downstairs, family tv/room to the rear which flows to the spacious dining kitchen area with utility area off. The extensive rear garden is accessed from the utility room. The bathroom completes the downstairs.

The converted attic space is reached via a wooden spiral staircase fixture. On this upper level the current owner has created a open family area with 2 partitioned bedrooms off and the shower room.

Externally the property is located within an extensive south facing plot which offers a degree of privacy from neighbouring properties. The garden provides the ideal space to relax and/or entertain. The property also boasts driveway and garage.

Location

Stepps is a thriving settlement in North Lanarkshire, Scotland, near the north-eastern outskirts of Glasgow. It enjoys recently upgraded facilities that include a new primary school, library, and sports facilities while retaining a historic heart around its church in Whitehill Avenue and its Victorian and Edwardian housing. Excellent travel connections by road and rail mean residents work in Glasgow, Edinburgh, Falkirk, Stirling and beyond. At the same time its location means that excellent walks in the new Seven Lochs Wetland Park are on the doorstep, from which views to the Campsies and Loch Lomond can be enjoyed.
